MOBILIZED LEUKAPHERESIS PROGRAM

Take Part in Helping...

to support critical immunology-based research.

MOBILIZED LEUKAPHERESIS

This collection is a unique white blood cell donation. Prior to donating, injections of a bone marrow stimulating drug are administered, which boosts your body's white blood cell production. These injections are commonly used to mobilize stem cells to the peripheral blood for collection and subsequent autologous (originating from the recipient, not a donor) transplantation in patients with certain cancers.

If you qualify, injections and donations will be scheduled for you, based on the specific regimen for which you're participating.

If you agree to do a two-day collection (Regimen 2, 3, 4 or 5), but due to unplanned circumstances only complete one of the collections, then you will be compensated accordingly:

- Regimen 2: $400
- Regimen 3: $500
- Regimen 4: $425
- Regimen 5: $350

If you need assistance with travel and transportation to the donor center you may be provided a travel stipend.
